New Year' Show Exhibition of Drawings at William Holman Gallery

*Drawings by Gallery Artists
January 4 – February 3, 2013*

NEW YORK, December 13, 2012 — William Holman Gallery will exhibit drawings, works on paper, vellum and mirror by Gallery Artists from January 4 to February 3, 2013. The fourth monthly exhibition since the gallery opened its doors on the Lower East Side this past autumn, New Year's Drawings includes intimate and large scale drawings in a variety of media reflecting the broad talents of our artists.

We will exhibit drawings by Peter Bonner, Anthony Brownbill, John Cunningham, Michael J. Davis, Nicolette Jelen, Tom Judd, Massimo Lippi, Sally Tittmann and Robert Seyffert. For this exhibition we are pleased to include work by two additional artists, new to the Gallery's program, Rick Shaefer and Steve Pauley. Additionally we will include some drawings from the estate of Olin Dows (1906 - 1981) The Gallery Artists biographies and details may all be accessed on our web site.

From a small intimate sepia interior drawing measuring 10 x 7 inches to a very large charcoal on vellum triptych measuring 9 by 18 feet the selection is focused on connoisseurship and excellence of execution in a variety of mediums. We have also included some unique work by Nicolette Jelen of drawings through silver to create 'drawn' mirrors. Jelen pours silver nitrate on glass surfaces and draws through the fresh silver with a wooden pointed stylus.
